

List of Amendments and Relevant Original Constitution Sections

Below is a list of the amendments added to the Constitution after the Bill of Rights. (The Fourteenth Amendment has been broken up into three parts). These amendments constitute flaws revealed after the government went into operation, changes sought by the citizens, and the like.

Following each amendment or section of an amendment is the relevant constitutional text the amendment is responding to.

- Amendment XI [Article III, Section II]
- Amendment XII [Article II, Section 1]
- Amendment XIII [Article I, Section II, paragraph 3; Article IV, Sec 2, paragraph 3, Amendment 10]
- Amendment XIV, Section 1, 5 [Article I, Section 10, Amendments 1-8]
- Amendment XIV Section 2, 5 [Article I, Section 2, paragraph 1 and 3]
- Amendment XIV, Section 3,4,5 [no original text]
- Amendment XV [Article I, Section 2, paragraph 3, Amendment XIV, Section 2]
- Amendment XVI: (Article I, Section 2 and Article I, Section 9, paragraph 4)
- Amendment XVII [Article I, Section 3, paragraph 1-2]
- Amendment XVIII [Amendment 10]
- Amendment XIX [Article I, Section 2, paragraph 3, Amendment XIV, Section 2; Amendment XV]
- Amendment XX [Article I, Section 4]
- Amendment XXI [Amendment X, XVIII]
- Amendment XXII [no original text]
- Amendment XXIII [Article I, Section III, paragraph 3, and Article I, Section VIII, paragraph 17]
- Amendment XXIV [Article I, Section 2, paragraph 3, Amendment XV]
- Amendment XV [Article II, Section I, paragraph 6]
- Amendment XXVI [Article I, Section 2, paragraph 3]
- Amendment XXVII [no original text]