Live Tweeting

Directions: Imagine that you are one of the Pilgrims on the Mayflower when it lands in Plymouth, MA, and when you disembark, you see a number of Native Americans watching. What might your reaction be to these people who are so different from you? How would you feel? Once you identify those thoughts, compose four tweets (making sure that they are each 140 characters or less) that narrate the arrival. These will be broadcast over social media and shared worldwide.
