

Name:

---

The Declaration of Independence both describes the political philosophy of America and lists the ways that the British government violated British liberties and natural rights. The Constitution was meant to help protect these rights.

Read the Declaration of Independence and Constitution to find specific examples of the Constitution implementing the ideas of the Declaration.

Article III, Section 1 says judges shall hold office during good behavior and cannot have their salaries reduced.

“...he has made Judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.”

The Declaration of Independence:

The Constitution: