Venn Diagram Grading Rubric

Category	7-6	5-4	3-2	1-0
Content	All content is accurate. Statements reflect a holistic understanding of the differences between federal and state powers. The federal and state sections contain at least seven points. The shared section contains at least five.	Most of the content is accurate. Statements reflect general understanding of the differences between federal and state powers. The federal and state sections contain at least five points. The shared section contains at least three.	Some of the content is accurate. Statements reflect partial understanding of the differences between federal and state powers. Sections may not be complete, but content is correct.	Little of the content is accurate. Statements do not reflect an understanding of the differences between federal and state powers. Sections may not be complete or information is in the wrong location.
Writing	Spelling and grammar are correct throughout. There are no errors.	There are minor errors in spelling and grammar. There are fewer than five errors.	There are more than five errors in spelling and grammar, though they do not affect the ability to read and understand the content.	There are significant and noticeable spelling and grammatical errors throughout. Errors affect the ability to understand the content.